DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

PROVIDENCE, (R. I.) Sept. 20, 1854.

DR. SWAYNE:—Dear Sir: I feel called, by a sense of duty I owe to suffering humanity, to acknowledge my grateful indebtedness to the successful efforts of your "Compound Syrup of wild cherry," after having suffered months after months with the most afflicting of all diseases, (consumption,) with scarce any gratification or relief, until I was enabled to meet against my own horrible forebodings, to guard myself against the fatal effects of the disease, under circumstances which first led to this awful state of debility was from taking a very heavy "cold," which gradually increased to a violent inflammation of the lungs, grew worse, with profuse night sweats, which gradually became more and more oppressive, and at length, with great general debility. My constitution seemed to be fast giving way, and the system very much impaired, with all the symptoms of advanced consumption. I went to Philadelphia, and was treated there by physicians of the highest respectability, but all gave over to me, and I gave up as incurable, and intended to go to South America, being very poor, and losing so much time from my work, and spent all my money on the various "patent medicines" advertised in the newspapers, and through the medium of the press, I was unable to get any advice. Being a member of the order of O.M.F., I followed, they supplied me with money gratuitously to send me to my friend in Saco, Maine. I was told that he was a physician, and that he would cure me, but received no benefit whatever from the treatment. I gradually grew worse, until my physicians and myself gave all hope of my ever recovering; and I was like some of the poor who pass through the valley of the shadow of death, and find a fearful juncture." I heard of your "Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry," and knowing you to be a regular practicing physician in Philadelphia, gave me more confidence in the remedy, so I sent for it, as a last resort, to make a trial of it. I sent to you in Boston, and purchased one bottle, which relieved me very much. I then procured two bottles more, and I am happily and entirely cured me, and I can give you better testimony than I have before in my life. It seemed to have a beneficial effect at once. I gained strength rapidly, and became able to do a mere skeleton; and I feel satisfied from my entire recovery, that I can give you credit for the "Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry" of Dr. Swayer's. I have been afflicted with this complaint for many years, and I have been told that I had a very case of diseased lungs, if taken according to the prescribed rules contained in the pamphlets accompanying the medicine. Even the physician who was called in to attend me, told me that I had a similar case; and I wish you to make it known so that others who are suffering as I have been, may know where to procure a remedy at first, which will reach the disease, before tampering with and ruining their constitutions, and thus "quack nostrums" with which the whole country flooded, prepared by persons who have no knowledge of the science of medicine in theory or practice, but are got up merely with a mercenary view.

I am a secret member of the Hope Lodge of L. O. of O. F. in Providence, Rhode Island, and will be happy to give any information in regard to the efforts of the lodge to give ample evidence of the truth of the statement that the pamphlet my case is not exaggerated in the least.

ALBERT A. ROSS.

To Dr. H. Swayne, N. W. corner of Eighth and Race streets, Philadelphia.

Be sure that you call for Dr. Swayne's Syrup of Wild Cherry, and you will be sure to get the original and true article, which is prepared from the wild cherry. Prepared only by Dr. Swayne of Philadelphia, who has been practicing medicine for long been accustomed to the treatment of pulmonary diseases in all their varieties.
